Parenting Classes

How many times have you heard that parenting is the hardest job you will ever do? Parenting is challenging, even when your own parents did an outstanding job raising you. If you were raised in a dysfunctional environment, it's difficult to overcome those barriers and practice healthier parenting techniques.

Parenting education is beneficial in many ways by helping parents feel more competent in their parenting skills, improving child behavior as a result of positive parenting techniques, improving communication skills between parents and children, increasing social connections among parents for providing emotional support, and decreasing the use of physical punishment.

Star Students for June

Teachers have picked one student from each of our classrooms to be the Star Student of the Month.

We have Cash P. in our Infant classroom, who is always so happy and smiling at everyone who talks to him or holds him.

In our Younger Toddler classroom, we have Liam M., who gets along with everyone and shares with his friends so well.

Atticus O. in Older Toddlers used to be shy, but he is opening

Road Trippin'

We cannot wait for summer to start! We have in-house field trips planned and out-of-center trips for our school-age children.

Our summer camp activities include science experiments, cooking activities and splash days, and we offer full-time, part-time and drop-in programs through August 11.

Father's Day

We will be celebrating Father's Day on Friday, June 16, with Pretzels and Root Beer To Go for all of our fathers, grandfathers and uncles! Join us at pick up for a photo station and goody bags.

up more and loves being helpful.

Preschool 1 and Preschool 2 chose Lillian S., who plays well with friends, and Kevin C., who is so funny, helpful and full of joy.

Pre-K 1 and Pre-K 2 chose Benjamin, who is helpful, funny and exciting to be around, and Kolbie, who is very smart and loves to come to school.

Benjamin R. in our School Age class is always friendly to everyone and best friends with everyone in his class.
