SEPTEMBER 2023

The Importance of Routines

Children depend on consistent and predictable daily routines. Their sense of security depends on familiar adults and schedules. Even the smallest changes can cause stress.

Daily changes are unavoidable, but the teachers at Endless Discoveries are aware of the impact they have on children and are able to plan ways to help them feel secure.

Every classroom has consistent routines, procedures and transitions established to help the day run smoothly. This allows children to remain calm and focus more on learning.

Our teachers are able to create an environment that is safe, healthy and conducive to children's exploration and independence. A well-managed classroom has a high level of participation and engagement. Children know the expectations, and their actions show that they do. There is relatively little wasted time, confusion or disruptions, and this provides a relaxed and pleasant environment for the children.

Labor Day

Remember that we will be closed on Labor Day, September 4. On this day, we pay tribute to the contributions and achievements of American workers. Labor Day weekend also symbolizes the end of summer and the beginning of the school year.

Grandparents Day

We would like to invite all grandparents to join us on Friday, September 8, for a muffin and coffee.

We are grateful for your being our heroes, someone to lean on, and our best friends.

Parents' Night Out

We will be having Parents' Night Out on Friday, September 15, from 6:00 to 10:00 p.m. with pizza, movies, games & fun!

This month your child will be FREE if two friends sign up also.

Welcome, Ms. Miranda!

Everyone at Endless Discoveries is excited to have Ms. Miranda join our team here in Glen Rose as our Quality Director. She has been in the early child education field for seven years, and she has a passion for the extra measures found in high quality environments.
